LOCATION

The market town of Brampton lies approximately 9 miles east of the city of Carlisle, the main commercial centre for Cumbria and south west Scotland.

Brampton is a traditional market town which is conveniently positioned on the A69 trunk road, linking Carlisle with Newcastle. The town boasts a pretty market square with a variety of established commercial occupiers including: Cranston's Butchers, Cumberland Building Society, Co-op and Spar convenience stores. It is a popular stop-off point for visitors and walkers/cyclists doing the Hadrian's Wall trail.

DESCRIPTION

The property provides recently refurbished ground floor accommodation suitable for a variety of uses, and benefits from two large glazed display windows fronting onto both Main Street and High Cross Street. On-street parking is available in close proximity to the property with additional 'free' longer stay parking within easy walking distance at the Union Lane and Showground car parks.

Refurbished to a high standard, the ground floor accommodation provides flexible space suitable for a variety of uses in a highly prominent location.
