LOCATION

Workington is the main catchment town for West Cumbria with convenient transport links to the city of Carlisle approximately 30 miles north and the town of Whitehaven approximately 5 miles south. The lake district towns of Keswick, Windermere and Ambleside are less than one hour's drive west.

4 Finkle Street is positioned in the centre of Workington and lies prominently on the corner junction where Finkle Street merges with Pow Street, Murray Road and Speedwell Lane. Surrounding buildings include William Hill, VPZ, Iceland, Sports Direct and a range of Charity Shops. Permit holder and disc zone parking is available immediately outside.

For identification purposes only, the location is shown on the plan overleaf.

DESCRIPTION

4 Finkle Street comprises a two-storey mid terraced building of traditional brick construction with a rendered finish under a pitched slate roof. The ground floor provides DDA access and window frontage onto Finkle Street, and internally is a rectangular shaped sales area. The first floor is basic storage, staff kitchen and WC. The second floor provides further basic stores.
