LOCATION

Dalston is a popular and picturesque north Cumbrian village situated approximately 7 miles south west of Carlisle, Cumbria's predominant population and commercial centre. The village offers a good range of amenities including St Michael's primary and Caldew secondary schools, The Blue Bell public house, local shops including the village pharmacy, butchers and a Co-op local convenience store. As well as a range of traditional and new build residential housing.

The subject property lies at the heart of the village within a desirable location known as The Square and sits immediately adjacent to a BUPA Dental Practice.

DESCRIPTION

The whole building is a 3 storey end of terrace property of assumed stone built construction under a pitched slate roof. The exterior walls have been rendered and painted.

The Dalston Fryer is positioned within the ground floor only. This demise provides a fully fitted out Hot Food Takeaway and customer disabled WC to the front with kitchen, preparation area, stores and staff areas to the rear. The unit also benefits from panoramic window frontages onto the Carlisle Road (B5299) arterial road through Dalston.
